GOING BACK TO KANSAS.

I am going back to Kansas
Once more before I die.
This cheerful wish I long have planned
And dreamed to gratify.
Two weeks of blissful pleasure
Beneath that sky of blue
"Would satisfy my longings
As nothing else could do."
I must visit Sunny Kansas
In soul-surprising Spring,
Where the trees renew their verdure
And the birds know how to sing,
To hear the prairie chickens
Booming in the early morn,
And to see the red-bird blossoms
When it's time for planting corn.

Perhaps two weeks of Summer
Would give me greater joy,
Each day to go in swimming
As I used to when a boy;
To see the towering thunder clouds
And watch the lightning play,
And see the fire flies dancing
At the dewy close of day.

When the cool sweet watermelon
Is ready for your knife
And all around is thrilling
With full strong vigorous life—
When the juicy succulent peaches
Hang inviting on the tree,
The glorious summer season
Is good enough for me.

Then—I think the early autumn
Would be the best of all.
When the crickets are in chorus
And the sun kissed apples fall;
When the lazy Indian summer
Trembles in the sleepy air—
When the sunsets, oak and maple
Paint the woods with colors rare.

Yet I long to make my visit
In the keen sharp, tingling cold,
When there's skating, sleighing, skating
And the wintry sports of old;
By the flickery fire at evening
When the cider sparkles clear,
With someone cracking walnuts,
With a pan of apples near.

I'm not exactly homesick—
Yet, as the years roll round
I can't be quite contented
On the shores of Puget Sound
Till I've made FOUR trips to Kansas—
One in spring-time, one in fall,
One in winter, one in summer—
The last the best of all.

No, I wouldn't live in Kansas—
I'd not go back to-day.
Two weeks of each fair season
Would last for many a day.
Whenever I leave this country
Wherever I may go,
I will buy a round trip ticket,
I want you all to know,
—A. N. GOSNEY, PORT TOWNSEND, WASH.

For A Square Deal.

The Kearney County Advocate, published at Lakin, Kansas, has the following to say of the story told in the Rustler some time ago in regard to the two boys of this city who were scalded on one of the Santa Fe trains near that town. The Rustler had no desire to color the story in any way, and simply gave it as it was given to us. The Advocate says:

The Great Bend Rustler, of August 27th, in a lengthy article narrating the injuries received by Ray Chapman and George Thatcher, the men who were scalded near Mayline on August 23d, gives a truthful account, but as to the treatment received at Lakin, nothing could be farther from the truth. The Rustler says:

"They were put in the baggage car and hauled into Lakin where they were taken from the train and left without any attention on the depot platform. The city authorities at Lakin refused to have anything to do with them because they were brought there by the railroad company."

The writer was at the depot on arrival of No. 8 on August 23, when the train conductor came running up and asked if we had a physician here; when told that we had, he said: "For God sake get him here quick as we have two men in the baggage car badly scalded." Dr. Johnson was phoned to, and in person we went direct to his office; he was getting ready to answer call, and we repaired immediately to the depot with the physician, who gave first aid relief, when he had the unfortunate men carried into the depot waiting room, where Dr. G. F. Johnston, ex president, also ex-secretary, and a member of the state board of medical examination and registration, and likewise the Santa Fe surgeon, dressed their wounds, when they were moved up town, where the doctor continued to render them every attention until they left for Great Bend. Had the boys given the information asked for after their injuries had been dressed, viz. who and where they resided their friends would have received word at once, but they told us they lived in Kansas City, but what their names were was "none of our business."

ELLINWOOD.

From the Leader, Sept. 6.

Carl Ruch has been on the sick list, but is much better at this writing.

Freddie Frank has been quite seriously ill, but is reported better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sessler returned from an extended sojourn in Colorado this morning.

J. N. Schartz returned Tuesday night from a trip to western Kansas. He says the country out there has had more rain than it needed, and that threshing is delayed more than here.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wolf in Comanche township last Thursday evening, the surprise being on Miss Alma Soderstrom, who has been visiting in this vicinity the past few weeks. A good crowd was present, disregarding the threatening weather.

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sessler in Comanche township on a surprise. A large crowd was present and the evening was spent in playing games and other amusements. They adjourned at a late hour and were well satisfied.

HOISINGTON.

From the Dispatch, Sept. 6.

R. M. French is reported in bad shape with a stroke of paralysis.

A 10½ pound boy was born to T. J. Bemore and wife Sunday night.

Miss May Peugh has been quite sick with typhoid fever but is considerable better at present.

N. E. Tisdale had two hay stacks burned up by being struck by lightning last Thursday night.

It was reported to us today that twin boys were born to J. W. Susank and wife northeast of town Monday.

Mrs. Frank Boxwell and son and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Craddick and son are visiting relatives in Nebraska and Missouri.

C. A. Mitchell and wife suffered the loss of their little daughter at Herrington this morning. The body will be shipped here for burial tomorrow.

William H. Grundy and Mary L. German, both of Claflin were married Sunday afternoon at the Christian parsonage by F. M. McHale. They will make their home in Claflin.

J. R. Lewis, who has been an efficient member of the Y. M. C. A. for the past 16 months has severed his connection with us and entered the shops where he will learn the coppersmiths trade. He is trustworthy and capable and we speak for him success.

The Great Bend Male Quartette, assisted by Miss Helene Connett, reader, and Miss Elsie Strong, accompanist, gave a splendid entertainment in the opera house Wednesday night and deserved a much larger attendance. They gave a much better entertainment than many traveling troupes.

CLAFLIN.

From the Clarion Sept. 6.

Mrs. W. A. Engleman is improving some this week, though still very ill.

The new cement sidewalk on the east side of Main street was completed Saturday.

The remains of Chas. Carpenter, who was killed by train No. 8 last Thursday morning were buried in the city cemetery Friday afternoon.

A fine new school house is being erected in district No. 63, and will probably be ready for occupancy by the time the fall term commences.

Miss Lenora and Clara Gizzell, readers, assisted by Margaret Hills, soloist of Salina, will give a recital in the opera hall on the 20th of this month.

J. W. Gardner returned the latter part of last week from Golden City, Mo., where he attended the bedside of his father, who was shot and dangerously wounded recently.

We overlooked mentioning the fact recently that John K. Pickering is the new stenographer at the office of the Universal Mills, the position formerly held by Miss Margaretta West.

The Zimmerman home 3 miles west and 1½ miles south of Bush-ton was the scene of a very pleasant and notable wedding Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock the occasion being the nuptials of Miss Mary Zimmerman and a gentleman named Rees of near Chase.

Father A. P. Hiemann was given a most pleasurable surprise by the members of the Catholic churches of Claflin and Odin last Monday. At the close of the services here that day he went out to his buggy to return to Odin, and to his amazement, found that his old vehicle and harness had been removed and an entire new outfit substituted. The surprise was complete.

PAWNEE ROCK.

From the Herald, Sept. 6.

Rev. H. M. Gillmore, who has been conducting a series of meetings at Kanopolis returned Monday.

Mrs. John Goatley returned Saturday from the eastern states, where she has been visiting friends and relatives.

Wm. Goatley has commenced the foundation for his new residence on the lots which he purchased of Chas. Ross.

Miss Louise Liphardt came in from Ellinwood Saturday evening and left Sunday for Dundee where she started her fourth term of school Monday.

We notice that a number of our enterprising citizens have taken time to cut their weeds, and by so doing have added quite materially to the beautifying of the city. Many more should follow the good example.

O. Z. Seibert, the 14-year-old son of A. Seibert residing south of the city fell into a burning straw stack Sunday evening while playing around it with several of his companions. The burns were not dangerous however and he is getting along nicely.

Our Young Folks Abroad.

The Lyons Eagle of the 7th has the following to say of the appearance of the Great Bend Male Quartette, and the young ladies assisting them:

"One of the most pleasing programs was rendered at the Christian church last Tuesday evening, by the Great Bend quartette company. The special numbers gave proof of personal ability and the quartet work was smooth and pleasing. Miss Connett gave many excellent readings and was encored repeatedly, each time responding cheerfully. She is an elocutionist of rare ability and her class of work was certainly above the ordinary. Miss Strong was a very good accompanist and was very exact and played with the touch and expression of an accomplished musician. Taking the entertainment through, it was a success and the young people should always have a good attendance."

A Surprise Social.

One of the most unique and pleasant socials of the season was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crocker, Monday evening, when the merry crowd of Enworth Leaguers instituted a surprise on these young people. To say they were surprised is placing a mild conception on affairs, for we found Ed in the kitchen assisting in the culinary department and Mrs. Crocker greeted the crowd in her every day attire. The evening was spent very pleasantly in games, magic tricks and social amusements. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves and went home at 10:30 feeling that they had been highly entertained.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our most sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness shown us in our late sorrow, in the death of our beloved wife and mother.
